

The Counselor Chat

What's new at Patton?

- The school year
- Your Childs' teacher
- The School Counselor

Dear Parents/Guardians,

As we come to an end of our second week of school, I hope things are beginning to settle, and the return to school is going smoothly.

This week I have visited many of the students classrooms and introduced myself to your child's class. Next week, I will finish visiting with all classes, with the goal that every student knows who I am, where they can find me, and what I do here at Patton.

As many of you may know, I am new to Patton, new to Austin ISD, and new to the city of Austin. Everyone has been so kind and welcoming here! :)

With that in mind, I have created an Amazon wish list to help me create the counseling center for all students. If you can help me with that list, that will be great! If you can't, that is OK. Do not feel that this is a must. It is my WISH list!

Happy Friday, and I hope everyone has a wonderful relaxing weekend
